

The City of Simi Valley and Golden State Water Company present

A Free Water Conservation Landscape Workshop

August 14, 2010, 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

The average California homeowner uses more than 60 percent of their water on landscaping. Find out how to minimize your outdoor water usage and still maintain an attractive yard by attending our free California-friendly workshop on Saturday, August 14, 2010 at the Simi Valley Senior Center, 3900 Avenida Simi. The event will be held from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Participants will learn:

- Landscape and garden design
- Benefits of using California-friendly plants
- Sprinkler system basics
- Soil, fertilizer and watering requirements.

To register, please call 805-583-6420 or 1-800-999-4033. You can also email albertfrias@gswater.com or WaterConservation@simivalley.org.

For more information about the Simi Valley Water Conservation Program please visit www.simivalley.org/waterconservationprogram.

Landscape training courses and rebate information are also on on-line by visiting www.bewaterwise.com.

Golden State Water Company customers can visit www.gswater.com for information on rebates and water conservation programs.

Golden State Water Company

A Subsidiary of American States Water Company