5. APPROACH TO DIVERSITY & INCLUSION

The Company believes that when our employees reflect the diversity of the communities in which we work, the Company gains a better understanding of our business needs and requirements. The Company is committed to our goal of diversity and inclusion by increasing our focus on recruiting and retaining from diverse backgrounds, creating additional awareness of diversity issues and benefits, fostering a more supportive environment where inclusivity is expected and required, and embedding accountability for diversity throughout the Company as embodied by our core values and policies.

Our human capital is the most valuable asset we have. The collective sum of the individual differences, life experiences, knowledge, inventiveness, innovation, self-expression, unique capabilities, and talent that our employees invest in their work represents a significant part of not only our culture, but our reputation and the Company's achievement as well. We embrace and encourage our employees' differences in age, race, disability, ethnicity, family and marital status, gender identity and expression, language, national origin, physical and mental ability, religion, sexual orientation, socio-economic status, veteran status, and other characteristics that make our employees unique. Our diversity initiatives are applicable, but not limited, to our practices and policies on recruitment and selection; compensation and benefits; professional development and training; promotions; transfers; terminations; and the ongoing development of a work environment built on the premise of inclusion of all employees.

The Company undertakes various diversity and inclusion efforts throughout our operations. Our efforts are focused and supported by policies and initiatives in the following areas:

- Equal employment opportunities: The Company is committed to attracting, hiring, and retaining employees from diverse backgrounds and fostering an inclusive, supportive environment. We ensure that our practices and processes attract a diverse range of candidates and that candidates are recruited, hired, assigned, developed, promoted, and paid based on merit and their alignment to our values.
- Code of Conduct and Employee Handbook: The Company is committed to creating an environment that is free from discrimination, bullying, and harassment, and supporting and maintaining a healthy and safe workplace. Our policies expressly prohibit any form of discrimination, bullying, retaliation, and harassment, and our zero-tolerance for any such prohibitions are effectuated through proper investigations with the appropriate corrective actions, up to and including termination of employment.
- Dignity and respect for all: Pursuant to the Company's policies, all employees have a responsibility to treat others with dignity and respect at all times. All employees are expected to exhibit requisite professionalism and conduct that reflects inclusion during work, at work functions on or off the work site, and at all other work sponsored events. Any employee found to have exhibited any inappropriate conduct or behavior against others may be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.
- Equal Pay Analysis: Each year we conduct a comprehensive equal pay analysis for all employees and we make any appropriate adjustments as necessary.

- Vendor Code of Conduct: Our high standards and requirements that we hold for the Company also apply to all of the Company's vendors through our Vendor Code of Conduct, which expressly provides that vendors are to operate in full compliance with all applicable laws, rules, and regulations, and must at all times act in a legal and ethical manner in all aspects of their dealings with their employees, customers, governmental agencies, and other third parties. Moreover, our Vendor Code of Conduct provides, among other things, that all of our vendors are expected to respect and value the contributions that people of different characteristics, experiences, and backgrounds offer, and vendors must promote a cooperative and productive work environment by supporting diversity of their workforce and commitment to providing equal employment opportunity to all qualified individuals. In addition, our Vendor Code of Conduct prohibits, including without limitation, any form of discrimination, bullying, retaliation, harassment, or any other unlawful or unethical practice.
- Supplier diversity: We endeavor through our procurement and business practices to maximize vendor opportunities with women, minority, disabled veteran and lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender business owners as well as under-represented small businesses owned by military veterans (WMDVLGBTBEs) as suppliers, contractors, and subcontractors of goods and services. The Company seeks to build relationships with, develop, and buy from WMDVLGBTBEs. This contributes to strengthening communities and creates long-term growth and competitive advantage for us. Our vendor management procedures require all new vendors to answer during their due diligence review whether or not they fall under the WMDVLGBTBEs definition. Our procurement staff tracks and measures this information to monitor the Company's vendor diversity. In addition, all qualified vendors are required to comply with the Company's Vendor Code of Conduct, which provides, among other things, that vendors must provide equal employment opportunities to all employees and job applicants.
- Leave policies: A range of leave options are available to our employees to ensure that they have appropriate options for taking time off work, and this includes, without limitation, family and medical leave, sick leave, vacation leave, pregnancy leave, parental leave, military leave, crime victims leave, and others.
- Safe work environment: We provide regular training to all employees to improve their understanding of behaviors that can be perceived as discriminatory, exclusionary, retaliatory, harassing, and/or bullying, and provide numerous safe avenues for employees to report such inappropriate behaviors. We have policies, including our Code of Conduct and Employee Handbook, that expressly prohibit any such inappropriate behaviors, and employees understand acceptable workplace behavior as covered by our policies. We also implement best practices and comply with local, state, and federal legal requirements.
- Learning and development opportunities: To support our employees in reaching their full potential, the Company offers a wide range of internal and external learning and development opportunities. Education assistance is offered to financially support those employees who seek to expand their knowledge and skill base.
- Flexible workplace arrangements: The Company believes in assisting employees to maintain a healthy balance between work and domestic responsibilities along with other personal commitments. Sometimes employees require flexible working arrangements and, for a range of reasons, may seek to alter their working arrangements. The Company considers requests for flexible working arrangements on a case-by-case basis, considering the merit of the proposed arrangement, personal circumstances of the employee, the nature of the employment, the impact on the respective business area, and other business and operational requirements.
